

Patrick Macomber is my given name.

I specialize in interactive and branding design.

Jobs I've tried but am not very good at:

Roofing, ditch digging, plumbing, inventory maintenance, short order cooking, landscaping, dog training, chick wrangling.

My strengths are:

Writing, campaign thinking, typography, working fast, and having fun.

I know how to use all the fancy design programs, but if I had to rate myself I'd say:

photoshop: 5/5 | illustrator: 5/5 | indesign: 4/5 | flash: 2/5

What's more important is I can use my brain, and a pen, and a piece of paper.

I've worked for great companies such as:

Gensler Studio585 Dallas and 1 Trick Pony LLC of Philadelphia for a combined total of four years of agency experience.

I've led projects for companies like:

Virgin, Sony, Turner, Hard Rock, Honeywell, and Shake Shack.

My work has been featured in:

Communication Arts, How Magazine, and The One Club publication.

My goals are simple:

Work in a great environment. Learn something new every day. Feel stimulated.
Feed my dog, Olaf. Be happy.
